CIRCUIT COURT FOR HANCOCK COUNTY IN REGULAR FALL SESSION

Grand Jury Reports to Court Wednesday Morning—Reports Jail Too Small for Number of Inmates and New Building Needed—Courthouse Grounds Condition Complimented.

The fall term of Hancock county court convened Monday morning in this city with Hon. Walter A. White, presiding judge, District Attorney Wm. Colmer representing the state and Attorney E. J. Gex the county, with Sheriff Jos. C. Jones and Clerk of Courts A. G. Favre in their respective places, along with their deputies. The Grand Jury was sworn in on the first day, and organized with Leo W. Seal of Bay St. Louis as foreman, finishing their deliberations in time to be discharged by Judge White Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

What the grand jury found is best told in the official report, which follows:

To the Honorable Circuit Judge of Hancock County:

We the Grand Jury sworn to and empaneled to inquire into crimes committed in Hancock County, beg leave to make this our final report and pray to be discharged.

We listened with pleasure to the able instruction of Your Honor. We have examined 34 witnesses and have been in session 3 days. We have found 6 indictments. In the time allotted to us from the examination we were able to make we have found the books of the officers well kept. We have examined the County jail and find that the said jail is in a deplorable condition. The jail should be torn down and a new one built. The number of prisoners in the jail is too large for the size of the jail.

While this is true and the Board of Supervisors should have a new jail built yet we found that the jail is not as clean as it could be or should be. The jail is dark and filthy. Soap and paint could be used to advantage. There is no reason why the prisoners could not be made to wash up the floors and walls of the jail. The walls could be painted a lighter color and a wooden structure around the steps should be torn down and a new netting placed in lieu thereof. This would afford light and air. In fact we urge that the Board of Supervisors visit the jail and do something to better the conditions of this jail which in our opinion is in a deplorable condition. We suggest that the Sheriff make the prisoners wash up things around the jail and make the prisoners keep things clean.

We find that due to the traffic on the Spanish Trail that that Road is not in the shape it should be and we suggest that the Board, keep in touch with the State to see that this Road be kept in a better condition.

We also find that the Kiln-Bay Road is not in the shape that it should be and we recommend that this Road be kept in better shape.

"We find all other matters properly attended to by the officers. We especially wish to express our thanks and that of the County to those keeping the Court Grounds in shape. The grounds are well kept and in fact look better than we have ever seen them. We wish to thank your Honor and all officers who have helped us in our work and deliberations. We now pray that we be discharged."

As the Echo goes to press court is still in session and likely to adjourn Friday, Clerk Favre stated.

Several cases versus the L. & N. Railroad company have occupied much of the court's time and a greater part of Wednesday and Thursday is consumed by litigation between contractors and Senator Carl Marshall, litigation over matters concerning the reconstruction of Marshall's home in this city some four years ago and which has never been settled.

Number of litigants and witnesses before this term of court has been more numerous than generally and scenes in and around the corridors and portals of Hancock's temple of justice have been quite animated.

ZEKE BONURA WILL COACH BASKETBALL AT K. OF C. AGAIN

Athletic stock at the Knights of Columbus took a big jump with the announcement by Grand Knight Charles "Chief" Ahern that he had again signed Henry "Zeke" Bonura to coach the Casey basketball teams for the coming season.

Bonura made an auspicious debut last year as a professional basketball coach, when in his first year the Casey team won the championship of the Junior A. A. U. League and his senior team was runner-up to the champion Y. M. H. A. team, finishing second in the senior league, after losing to the Hebrews in the championship game, 21 to 20.

BILOXI C. OF C. WANTS SHORT-CUT

Asks N. O. Chamber of Commerce To Do All In Its Power Possible To Get Route.

Biloxi is seemingly as anxious to get the short cut auto route to New Orleans as Bay St. Louis, and is backing this desire with unusual activity and force.

The Biloxi C. of C. has addressed a letter to the Bay St. Louis C. of C. enclosing a copy of one that has been officially addressed to the New Orleans Association of Commerce, asking that body to "do everything in its power to bring about the building of the proposed short-line highway between New Orleans and the Mississippi State line."

Anthony Ragusin, secretary, at Biloxi, writes: "You will recall that much was accomplished for the promotion of the New Orleans-Mississippi Gulf Coast Short-Line highway at a meeting in your city some months ago. We believe that the time has now arrived to push this project to a successful conclusion and we renew our pledge of co-operation."

"It may do well for your Chamber of Commerce to call a meeting of those interested of Louisiana and Mississippi in your city. We will be glad to assist you in working up interest in this meeting, if called."

President George R. Rea, of Bay St. Louis, approved most heartily of the suggestion, and says he has planned to call a meeting of the executive committee to again take up this subject, which never has been dropped. Although with Gov. Long, again committed voluntarily to the short cut project, he thought the present special session of Louisiana would facilitate the earlier negotiation of the project. However, the local C. of C. is not asleep.

R. W. TAYLOR SCHOOL HAS PROGRAM

Parent-Teachers' Association Holds Monthly Meet; Hear Mrs. H. B. Weston

On Friday of last week the R. W. Taylor school P. T. A. met in regular session with the county chairman, Mrs. Harold B. Weston, guest speaker who brought some interesting facts to the school's attention.

At the business session the following committees were appointed for the year:

Hospitality—Mrs. E. Bademan, Mrs. Witter.

Program—Mrs. Goldman, Mrs. E. January.

Membership—Mrs. C. W. Collins, Mrs. Jones.

Publicity—Mrs. Stockstill.

The kindergarten orchestra members gave a demonstration of the work they are doing much to the delight of all present.

Four new members were added to the roll at this meeting.

Every one seemed enthusiastic and anxious to make this a banner year in P. T. A. work.

At the close of the meeting refreshment were served and a pleasant social half hour enjoyed by all.

Bobby Pollard Breaks Arm Falling From Peak On Putt-Putt Links

Bobby Pollard, young son of Mrs. O. M. Pollard, was a slugging and painful misfortune Friday afternoon. He was on the local putt-putt course and was on the top of one of the highest peaks of the different golf hazards when he lost his balance and fell on his right arm, above the wrist. Dr. H. H. Jones was summoned and dressed the broken arm. Bobby is a brave and courageous little fellow and did not allow his accident to interfere with his going to school.

TO CONTINUE BAY HOSPITAL AT SAME PLACE FOR PRESENT

Purchase of Property Selected Deferred Until Times Become More Propitious

With a total of only a little better than two thousand dollars on hand and principally due to the stringency of the times, executive officials of King's Daughters in Bay St. Louis, have concluded that the projected purchase of property in Main street for the purpose be deferred, if not altogether called off for the present.

It was pointed out that to make the purchase now would be far from practical for the reason sufficient money was not on hand. The payment of interest on amount balance due would be considerable, besides to equip the building and its maintenance would call for sums that the organization would not have at its command.

Possibly if times were better and the country was not going through the tenaciousness of a period of financial and industrial depression it might be possibly worth while to take the chance.

The executive board, headed by Mrs. A. F. Fournier, State vice president and local president of King's Daughters and its advisors and other co-workers have exhibited wisdom of no small degree and are to be commended. Possibly at a later date finances might be of such proportion as to permit a little of buying into the future as it were, to take the risk. But for the present it is better to take less chance. In the meantime the work of soliciting funds must continue, and all contributions sent to the King's Daughters hospital building fund will receive acknowledgment through the columns of The Sea Coast Echo.

Card and Lotto Party By W. B. A. of Bay St. Louis Next Thursday Eve.

There will be a benefit card party at Hotel Weston on Thursday evening of next week, 8 o'clock, given by a number of ladies under auspices of the Women's Benevolent Association of Bay St. Louis, to which all friends are cordially invited to be present.

There will be an award for the high score of every bridge and "600" table and at the end of every lotto game an award will also be made. There will be plenty of prizes worth striving for.

This event will be one of the series of parties given to raise a fund to pay for the sending of many delegates as possible from the local W. B. A. in order Bay St. Louis may be amply represented at the convention to be held in Chicago next summer. Tickets are being sold in advance at the modest price of twenty-five cents each.

The committee in charge of this benefit party is composed of Mrs. John Damborino, Miss Irma Koch, Mrs. Joseph Scaffie, Mrs. Stevens.

Serve-Self Resident Manager Seriously Cuts Palm of Left Hand

Richard Koch, Sr., resident manager Serve-Self Grocery Store, while cutting meat, had the misfortune to cut the palm near the thumb of his left hand to such an extent that he will be deprived the use of the hand for several days, if not longer. He was taken over to the Atlas Drug Store where the copious flow of blood was held in check and Dr. Alvah P. Smith later dressed the hand.

Gaston Robinson, an executive of the head store in Gulfport, was called over and took Mr. Koch's place in the meat department of the store.

Geo. R. Rea Is Appointed.

George R. Rea has been appointed a director chairman for Hancock county on the Mississippi Board of Development, and although a busy man with private and civic affairs he has accepted this honor which carries not only trust but many responsibilities.

TO HOLD DIRECTORS' MEET.

Directors of the Bay Waveland Yacht Club are to hold a meeting on Thursday night of this week to authorize the sale of clubhouse belongings, which are to be sold separately or as whole.

TO TEST OIL ON STREET SURFACES

City Council To Make First Trial On Carroll Avenue Next Month.

As a test members of the commissioners of the City of Bay St. Louis have decided to oil the surface of Carroll avenue, from the Beach boulevard extending back to the intersection of Dunbar avenue with crude oil, this to be done as early as possible following the regular meeting on the first Monday in October. This was reported at the city hall Wednesday morning, following a conference held a few days previously between city fathers and a number of residents and tax-payers of Carroll avenue.

Should this experiment prove practicable, it was explained, from the point of efficiency in settling the dust nuisance, protecting the street surface and from an angle of practical economy as well, then other streets over the city will, in due time, be given similar treatment. This until such time it will be found feasible and financially expedient to treat other streets over the city.

"The oil treatment is inexpensive," said one of the commissioners, "considering the long time it will last and serve the purpose intended, while, on the other hand, water sprinkling is expensive inasmuch as best it is only temporary."

The experiment promised will be watched with interest. Every confidence is expressed it will prove both beneficial and economical. Citizens will rise and call the commissioners blessed, we feel certain.

ROTE CHIEF WELCOME ON RETURN

Bro. Peter, President, Back From Business Tour In Louisiana

Rotarians hailed the return of Bro. Peter, president of the Club, with cordial acclaim and enthusiastic spirit Wednesday on the occasion of the regular weekly noon time luncheon meeting, following an absence caused by his travels and stay in Louisiana prior to the opening of St. Stanislaus College, of which he is president.

Brother Peter is an ardent Rotarian and during his travels in the far West during the summer addressed a number of clubs on boy's work and kindred subjects.

H. S. Bicket, president of Kansas City, Mo., Rotary Club, was a distinguished guest-visitor.

District Attorney Colmer, Rotarian of the Pascagoula club, while attending circuit court here this week in official capacity, was another welcome member making good his weekly attendance.

City Attorney Robt. L. Genin was given a glad hand, attending the luncheon as personal guest of Dr. G. M. Shipp, Rotarian.

H. Grady Perkins was officially announced as the winner of the Rotary miniature golf tournament. As per program arrangement, Chas. G. Moreau delivered the talk for the evening, speaking on observations, featuring individual development and sundry possibilities, citing economic endeavor on the Mississippi Gulf Coast as contrasted with a region of a supposed more favored and advertised section of another part of the country, concluding with an analysis of the all to the good for the Mississippi Coast.

TO HOLD DIRECTORS' MEET.

Directors of the Bay Waveland Yacht Club are to hold a meeting on Thursday night of this week to authorize the sale of clubhouse belongings, which are to be sold separately or as whole.

FILLING STATION TO BE BUILT AT MAIN ST. AND SPANISH TRAIL

Superior Oil Company Will Operate Service Station On Triangle Lot On Trail

Material is on the ground for the building of a service and filling station on the triangle lot corner Main Street and Old Spanish Trail, land owned by Emile J. Gex of this city, and the Superior Oil Company constructing the building to their own account, leasing the land for a period of five years.

It is expected the building will be finished within a comparative short time for active occupancy.

Gus Capdepon, well known local resident, has leased the building and business and will operate it. He will carry all products of the Superior Oil Company.

Edward Osbourn, well-known Bay St. Louis contractor and builder, has the contract, and will push the work of construction to as early completion as possible, commensurate with good work, he stated.

With two places of business already located at this section of the city it is easy to foresee a new and added business section to the city.

Announcing Benefit Card Party For This Friday Afternoon at 2.

There will be a benefit card party at the Hotel Weston this Friday afternoon, the 19, by and for the benefit of Pine Grove Circle, Woodmen of the World. Friends and the public are cordially invited to participate in the afternoon's pleasures and to assist a worthy object.

Frolics of 1930, For Hospital Benefit This Week, Is Postponed

Considerable disappointment was occasioned by the inevitable postponement of the entertainment, to have been given Saturday night of this week at the Bay High School auditorium benefit, King's Daughters Hospital fund, and which was advertised and anticipated pretty well keyed up. On account of sickness of various people, managers of different plays and parts, and also of the program consisting of a school play, postponement was to be faced. However, Mrs. Fournier, president of the order, gives the information the follies and fashion review will be given as soon as practicable, date of which will be duly announced in the columns of The Echo.

The program consists of sketch by Bernard Shields, Miss Ruth Ward, artist and dance instructor; style show in charge of Mrs. Val Yates and Mrs. A. P. Smith; character sketches by C. A. Gordon; Ben Hille, accompanied by Mrs. H. U. Cauty, pianist; vocal numbers.

FAVRE SUES L. & N. FOR $25,000.00

Echo of Accident Back Of Pass Christian Occurring In January of This Year

Jules Favre, resident and contractor of Waveland, has filed suit against the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company in federal court at Biloxi, for hearing at February term, for $25,000 for injuries alleged to have been received when a freight train struck him and his companion, James Cuevas, while driving a motor truck over the L. & N. tracks at the intersection of Church street, Pass Christian, last January.

Favre claims in his declaration that his skull was fractured, arm broken and chest crushed, and that he was permanently injured. The case was transferred from circuit court of Hancock county, jurisdiction of Favre's residence.

A report at the time of the accident said "the truck was knocked thirty feet when the men attempted to cross ahead of the train, which was not traveling at a rapid speed, it was reported, and was stopped within a short distance within the accident scene." The train was in charge of T. P. McDonald, conductor, and J. H. Hucaby, engineer. The truck was demolished. Inclement weather, with prevailing fog, made the accident unavoidable, it was said.

Jules Favre, Jr., is well-known, and resides with his family at Waveland.

Radical Reduction In Taxes Planned For Coming Year—Budget For New Year Is Constructive—Heavy Expense of Past Taken Care Of.

CITY BLDG. PERMITS ARE MANY

Bay St. Louis Official Record at City Hall Is Best Barometer of Activity

While other towns and cities are suffering a building depression that is appalling, Bay St. Louis, along with Waveland, shows considerable activity in the building operations line.

From the records of building permits at Bay St. Louis city hall considerable activity is shown, thus insuring more sales for dealers in building material and labor for our people, to say nothing for added improvement to Bay St. Louis.

The following list of permits is for the past several weeks only and does not include the $96,000.00 building of St. Stanislaus now finished. Two major projects, not yet announced, will no doubt apply for permit during the latter part of September or more probably the early part of October.

Game Warden Gives Notice

Albert Jones, local game warden for Hancock county, gives notice that hunting licenses may now be procured at the office of the sheriff at the courthouse. Licenses for hunting over county, $2.00; State, $3.00, and must be had for October 1st, when doves, squirrels and rabbits may be shot. It is all-important to procure licenses. Game Warden Jones stated as the provisions of the law will be strictly adhered to.

Surprise Party at Kiln

A delightful surprise party was enjoyed by friends and relatives at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Haas at Kiln. Mrs. Haas surprised Mr. Haas on the event of his birthday, having arranged for the arrival of guests Mrs. Haas summoned her husband home. Greeting him were a heavy of friends and a huge birthday cake with 25 lighted candles. Music was supplied, dancing being the attraction of the evening. Refreshment was served, and a good time reported.

The Board of Supervisors, of which Emilio Cue, of Bay St. Louis and Beat 5, is president, and true to his word, have reduced the assessments of this and other beats over the county considerably, in fact, to an appreciable amount. In addition to this, it is the intention of the board of supervisors to make a radical reduction in the rate of taxation, that is, the millage will be reduced. Thus taxes will have been brought down to practically rock bottom.

It must be remembered the county in the past has been put to heavy and unusual expenses and there had been a heavy bond issue to take care of. Much of this obligation is being gradually discharged. The interest too, has been a heavy drain.

The budget for the new year has been made with broad vision yet with intelligent handling from an economic standpoint. The different departments have been budgeted as follows: Administrative, $21,600.71; judicial, $8535.00; protection of personal property, $1450.00; conservation of health, $4050.00; highway maintenance, $61203.04; charities and correction, $8050.00; education, $1,800.00; advertising, $1070.00; interest, $105,972.51; bonds, $60,000.00; current loans, $18300.00.

The business of administering to Hancock county is no small job. It is the largest business in the county, and how well it is negotiated is best attested to by results. Our Board of Supervisors exercises a broad and liberal policy, realizing that a niggardly policy is narrow and permits of no progress and subsequent prosperity. However, from the budget it will be seen conservative amounts have been budgeted for the various departments, expenses of running this vast business for the ensuing year.

SHIPPED AWAY FOR CREMATION

Body of Church Sexton To Cincinnati—Thence To St. Mary's, In Canada.

Remains of Alexander Stackhouse, 77, native of Quebec, Ontario, who was found dead on Wednesday morning of last week in the yard of the Catholic rectory, where he was employed, were shipped Saturday morning on train No. 4 to Cincinnati to the crematory there, as per instructions.

* This request for the disposal of the body came from Mrs. Fred S. Price, a daughter of the deceased, residing at Portersville, California. From Cincinnati the ashes were shipped to Mrs. William E. Marshall, a relative, to St. Mary's Ontario, Canada, to be finally placed in a family vault.

The remains were prepared for burial Wednesday and remained in the mortuary establishment of Fahy's Undertaking company until Saturday, awaiting orders from relatives. Rev. Father McAlpine and Rev. Father Fahy and others were at the railroad depot to see the body off.

As stated in these columns last week, the deceased was sexton for the church of Our Lady of the Gulf and general utility man around the premises for Father Gmelch and little or nothing was known of him until he died when his personal effects disclosed that he had diplomas and certificates from university and college, was a dental surgeon at one time and later a chiropractor.

Father McAlpine said Father Gmelch would learn of the death much sorrow. He said he was a fine man and most faithful servant. If he had any church affiliation it was not known.

Visit To Ramsay Springs.

A party composed of Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Buckley of Bay St. Louis and Mr. and Mrs. Quincy E. Outter and Miss L. C. Del Bondio and Miss Marie Bertrand motored to Ramsay Springs, over in Harrison county, Sunday, and registered at the hotel there for the day, and report both the trip and visit one of combined pleasure and unforgettable memory.

Ramsay Springs is not only noted for the beauty of its primeval forest and rustic hotel, but for the curative waters of the Springs, located thirty miles from Biloxi and thirty-six miles from Gulfport, altitude 306 feet above sea level.

THE GOVERNOR LOSES ONE BIG CHANCE.

ALL the pressure that has been brought to bear on Governor Bilbo to call the legislature into another extraordinary session for the purpose of reaching agreement on some method of financing the highway program has resulted in failure. At a time when several millions of dollars expended in highway construction would mean so much in the matter of giving employment to thousands of men who are on the verge of want and starvation, due to crop failure, is not considered by our chief executive, so wedded is he to his hobby of a State printing plant, which he says must be guaranteed enactment before he will ever think of calling the legislators back to Jackson. Theodore still has a goodly number of years to live, and we all know that as long as the good Lord lets him remain above ground he will be seeking some political job, but those same thousands of men whom he has denied an opportunity to earn a few dollars by laboring on the highways are going to deny him their support when he asks for it in the years to come. Yes, he has lost his one big chance to regain his hold upon the very class of electors which in the past have been his bulwark of strength when he has been a candidate for office.

THEN AND NOW.

The cost of government, State, district, county and municipal, has reached a figure in Mississippi during the past twenty-eight years far beyond the conception of most taxpayers of the commonwealth.

Commenting on the matter in his "Mirrors of Mississippi," Edgar S. Wilson, who stands like a sentinel in the watchtower to warn the people of his beloved State in all matters affecting their welfare, has the following to say with regard to conditions existing then and now:

Newspapers from the center to the circumference of Mississippi are carrying the information that for the biennium 1900-1901, less than $4,000,000 were appropriated by the legislature for all purposes, and that there was only $600,000 of bond indebtedness with $892,251.75 cash in the State treasury; while now the indebtedness is $24,598,250, with a $5,000,000 deficit, and the interest on this bonded indebtedness is two-thirds as much as the total cost of State government 28 years ago. The appropriations for all purposes made by the legislature for 1930-1931 is $27,900,377.32. The bonded indebtedness of the 82 counties, which I printed, county by county, several days ago, is $83,239,075.04, and in some counties the tax levy for all purposes runs as high as 150 mills.

ANOTHER BLACK MARK FOR KEMPER.

Two negroes were taken from law officers in Kemper county one day last week and hung. They had been arrested for robbing a man and woman on the highway. Their guilt was certain and no doubt their conviction was sure had they been given a court trial. The crime charged against the negroes was not so heinous as to deserve death, and another black mark is chalked up against the citizenship of Kemper county which has already a record for outbreaks of mob violence.

TOO QUICK ON THE TRIGGER.

Two deputy sheriffs in Mobile are to be tried for killing a woman whom they thought was conveying liquor. The mere fact that they were not absolutely certain that she was violating the law, before firing the fatal shot should be sufficient proof to secure their conviction by any fair minded jury. It has become an almost everyday occurrence for officers to use their guns on innocent people—as was the case in this instance.

"AN OCCASIONAL DRUNK."

We read in an exchange that "a New York doctor says that an occasional drunk adds to the length of life." The toes of several of our deceased acquaintances are pointing up toward the daisies because they indulged in "an occasional drunk." They drank moonshine liquor, made in galvanized iron stills out of corn soaked in Red Devil lye.

OVER IN ALABAMA.

Election irregularities in a dozen Alabama counties are under investigation by grand juries and wholesale arrests are likely to result. The irregularities took place in the Democratic primaries held on August 8th, and it is a sad state of affairs when such things occur.

It remains to be seen whether Huey Long will appear in the United States Senate clad in his pea-green pajamas, or will he have the good sense to regard the proprieties which a member of that "august assemblage" should exhibit.

At this distance it looks as if Jim Ham Lewis is going to be Illinois' senator after March 4th next. His two lady opponents have "messed up" matters to such an extent his election is almost a certainty. The fair sex can be counted on to do just that thing most every time.

CAN AFFORD TO WAIT.

The Echo notes without the least regret that the election ordered to be held on the 16th was called off due to the failure of the parties applying for a franchise to furnish gas for Bay St. Louis to file the required bond.

Just at this time natural gas is being found in seemingly unlimited quantity at Jackson and the territory contiguous thereto, and the chances are good that rates considerably more reasonable can be secured by waiting a while before voting a franchise to any company.

Just how other cities are "making haste slowly" in the matter of granting franchises is illustrated in the case of Hattiesburg, as we learn from a late issue of the Daily American of that city and from a leading editorial in that paper we reprint the following excerpts:

"Delay in securing natural gas for Hattiesburg and other neighboring Mississippi communities is infinitely preferable to hasty adoption of ordinances which will give the utilities trust a strangle hold for the next twenty-five years. Mayor Tatum rendered notable service not only to this city but to the entire State when he came out flatfootedly in favor of the consumption of Mississippi natural gas from the Jackson field in this and other municipalities. His further proposal for the financing of a Mississippi Pipe Line Company with Mississippi money is a necessary corollary to the successful fruition of his plan.

"Mississippi has squandered her timber wealth. If our virgin forests still stood untouched by the saw and the skidder, our experience during the past quarter of a century would enable us to profit by numerous mistakes and safeguard our trees far more adequately than we have done.

"Now another precious natural resource comes to light with the development of the huge gas field at Jackson. Fortunately for us, we are able to profit by the experience of other states from the very outset. It is entirely unnecessary to experiment. We can permit the gas monopoly to goggle franchise right and left and as consumers, pay, and pay through all the years to come. Or we can capitalize existing advantages, and through close cooperation, secure natural gas at rates which will really interest industries seeking locations in the South."

TREADING WHERE ANGELS WOULD FEAR.

An inquirer writes The Echo to ask why we do not publish reports of all automobile accidents, particularly the number occurring on the Old Spanish Trail, that part of the highway connecting Bay St. Louis with New Orleans.

The truth of the matter is we could not if we wished to do so; secondly, the paper many weeks would contain little if anything else. There is hardly a day that some minor casualty does not occur, and never a week-end without many accidents with more or less injury resulting. Fortunately, the fatalities are not so common. However, one fatality, occasioned because of the dangerous condition of the State's highway, is sufficient to condemn the road and those of the highway department who are responsible for this reprehensible condition.

A trip to New Orleans, or, vice versa, has become a hazardous undertaking, and thousands who would take the trip to and fro during the season never venture. Many believe in fate, some call it destiny, but be it whatever it will, the old adage, "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," will remain.

This condition calls for immediate remedial attention and the sooner the Mississippi Highway Department, in charge of the Spanish Trail, places heavy guard rails and mesh fences on both sides and keep the surface in more dependable condition, the quicker will a death menace be removed.

We might be short of funds, we might be waiting on the possibilities of the short cut and last, but not least, on ultimate remedy of hard-surfacing treatment, but be it whatever it may, any one life is worth more than all other considerations and every day's waiting is just one day too long.

LT.-GOV. ADAM AT GULFSIDE.

Representing the State of Mississippi on invitation from the executive faculty of Gulfside, Lt.-Gov. Bidwell Adam appeared on the program of that institution's anniversary celebration last Thursday afternoon and spoke an hour or more, followed by Dr. Robert Moton, president Tuskegee Institute, over in Alabama. Other representative speakers appeared on both the morning and afternoon programs and how many people were present from different States for the occasion it would be hard to estimate. It was, perhaps, one of the most numerous assemblies yet witnessed at that place.

Lt.-Gov. Adam, as usual, was in a happy frame of mind; he dwelt with emphasis on the sphere of the two races, each one to his own and how much better it was and how much happier the individual for pursuing such course. He said the South was the home for the negro and that the white man, long ago, and conclusively proven, was the colored man's best friend. His address was well received by representatives of both races present and gave evidence that he was expressing the thought of a constructive and safe mind and one thoroughly familiar with conditions as they are.

Gulfside, established by Bishop R. E. Jones of the Methodist Episcopal church, in eight years has made rapid and substantial strides; its work has been constructive and for the common sense. No frills or foolishness, and no infallible theories. Gulfside is a religious, educational and recreational center, recognized by philanthropist of national name. It is well organized and conducted along the most constructive and conservative thought, and how well Bishop Jones has succeeded is best attested to by the fact it has the stamp and approval of recognized national authority on kindred subjects.

The Broadmoor branch bank of the Hibernia Bank and Trust Company in New Orleans has been robbed three times by bandits in the past three months. The frequency with which such robberies are taking place it looks as if such institutions will be forced to employ armed guards to protect their cash.

LOCAL SIDELIGHTS

TOWN OF WAVELAND TO HOLD ELECTION.

Voters of Waveland will be called upon in December to vote for a full municipal ticket and how active a campaign is being waged in our sister city is not generally known outside of the town. Because of its political upheavals in years gone by, Waveland was known as the biggest little town in the nation. It was so every two years. Finally the recurrent event of holding an election became acute as to appear more frequent than seemingly necessary, and in order that the "lins" might stay in a while, the tenure was made from two to four years—and well that it was. This gave time for political ills and ardor to simmer and die down to a point of rational being. Of late years the municipality of Waveland has been one of constructive force, and economic and most progressive, even though ultra conservative.

SPLENDID WOMAN URGED FOR MAYORALTY.

The name of Mrs. A. F. Fournier was incessantly urged some time since for the all-important office of mayor for Waveland and it is needless to say had she permitted her name to be used, provided she were legally qualified, her administration would be one of progressiveness and doing. But Mrs. Fournier is registered in New Orleans, her winter home, thus she was not qualified. Mrs. Fournier has long ago proven, both in Bay St. Louis and Waveland, not only her ability but that she possesses the spirit of up and doing; that spirit of the modern trend which goes for the making of better and bigger things. A woman, endowed by native talent and possessing every element necessary for the successful executive, she is well qualified and would fill the office of chief magistrate with becoming grace and dignity.

RAILROADS AS BUILDERS AND LOCAL BENEFACTORS.

It has been stated in these columns time and again that the L. & N. railroad company means to this city and county as against the bus lines that pay nothing and get all the road, using the roadways and bridges, railroad and individual taxpayers build and they use and abuse without paying tribute. Only recently it was stated the L. & N. paid into the coffers of Hancock county $40,000 tax money. Every town enjoys the substantial and material benefits of the railroad. In Pascagoula, says the Chronicle-Star, the L. & N. Railroad Company pays nearly seventy thousand dollars of taxes into the treasury of the county, it employs in Pascagoula alone some twenty-five heads of families who spend their money here, besides the thousands of dollars the company spends in keeping up its roadbed and other property in the county. So it may really be seen that the granting of the big franchise is a local affair, as well as State-wide. The railroad keeps up its own road and besides, by the payment of State and county taxes, helps to pay for the roads which the buses use, while buses pay only a nominal tax, use our splendid highways in unfair and unjust competition with the railroads, and give only a modicum of the service that the railroads can give.

ONE OF MANY WAYS TO CONTRIBUTE PATRONAGE.

Let the railroad haul the freight. They are entitled to this patronage. Every local business man with the best interest of his community at heart, will thus favor the railroads. The consumer, too, can help by patronizing the merchant and business man who so does. It is a long chain of things. This column is opposed to the spirit of boycott, but does believe in favoring every element that stands for the betterment of town and its people.

SHORT-CUT ROUTE N. O.-GULF COAST.

There is no subject more paramount and home in such major class in the public mind than the New Orleans-Mississippi Gulf Coast short cut, particularly since Governor and Senator-elect Huey P. Long of Louisiana has called a special session of the Louisiana Legislature and has stated specifically that the short cut in discussion will receive due and immediate consideration. This columnist is of the opinion that others will opine similarly; we think that New Orleans and Louisiana are just as anxious as Bay St. Louis and the balance of the Mississippi Gulf Coast for this short-cut, regardless of where it is located. It is gratifying to note that this long-wished-for project is about to be accomplished. It will mean more than shortening the distance between the two states as any thinking mind can interpret.

TIME TO PLANT SWEET-PEA FOR SPRING.

A lady subscriber, who is thoughtful and writes this paper from time to time, sent various subjects of public and home interest, writes to call attention to the fact it is not too early to plant sweet pea, saying "It is not too early to plant now if you wish to have this fragrant blossom at best in the early spring. Many plant too late and regret they did not do so earlier. Plant in September and October for early and better blooming."

Garden lovers and admirers of flowers might do well to heed the kindly suggestion of this good and thoughtful friend.

VIEWS OF OUR NEWS By Chicagoan

(Last Week's News Reviewed by a Stranger in The Windy City.)

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 9.—Hello Bay St. Louis folks! You didn't know it, but I've been looking at you, viewing you as you were, reflected in the columns of last week's Sea Coast Echo. You'd be surprised what a faithful mirror of your community I found this good newspaper to be.

If Editor Moreau permits, I'll write each week, telling you what most interested me in the issue of The Sea Coast Echo for the previous week. Later on, when we know each other better, I'll speak rather freely at times, and then I'm sure to make plenty of mistakes. However, when I'm too far off the track, I hope some of you will call me back by dropping me a line in care of this paper. Your letter will be forwarded, and I promise that it will be given prompt attention.

Before going one line farther, we'll settle one thing so that it need never be mentioned again. None of you know me. I'm just an odd piece of humanity that's been tossed about on life's sea for quite a spell. Now, I find my keenest pleasure in reading the good weekly papers coming to my desk. Such papers as The Sea Coast Echo are ever so much closer to the lives of their readers than are the metropolitan sheets. In future letters, I'll say little about myself, but will confine my remarks to the impressions I gain from reading The Sea Coast Echo from week to week.

The Echo has a Society Department written by one who could well do the honors on a big city daily. This is altogether fitting in a town like Bay St. Louis, which is, in itself, such a social center. I have no place to keep the hens but I want that advertiser at 107 Julia street to know that even strangers read Echo advertising.

The Echo is one of the only two few weekly papers having a strong editorial department. If you have not already done so, I strongly recommend the reading of last week's editorial entitled "For Real Prosperity." Farmers, following that advice, would do more toward bringing about farm relief than would all the efforts of the politicians.

Someday Joe Mauffray and I will get to gether and then what about the fish story we will tell the Echo readers. He may be a better fisherman than I, but I fear he is not able to tell a better story.

After devoting the better part of the past twelve years to the improvement of the appearance of Bay St. Louis' faces, A. J. Piazza, popular barber, took a vacation, the greater part of which was spent with his brother in Chicago. Mr. Piazza saw many things of interest, but returned to his native town more pleased with it than ever. Nothing makes us more satisfied with our own lot than viewing how the other fellow lives. As to Mr. Piazza's complaints regarding the drinking qualities of Chicago water, people who live up here only notice that when they drink water.

In the land of the blind, a one-eyed man may easily become King, but in Bay St. Louis, the driver of a one-eyed automobile will land in a Democratic prison if the Echo has its way. "Get This Fellow, Mr. Officer," charges an editorial last week.

I am glad to read of the activities of your P. T. A. The education of children is handled best when it is a matter of cooperative effort on the part of parents and those proxy parents, our teachers. Through the efforts of the P. T. A. teachers and parents become acquainted and that is the first essential to a complete understanding of each other.

Dan Cupid is one gentleman who hasn't even heard of an unemployment situation. The little archer long ago gave up hopes of ever catching up with his work. No sooner is one task completed than another presents itself for attention. Well, what I started out to do was to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heitzmann. Little Dan got so proud of making them happy last week, and he'll take care of some more of you in due time. Just who blushes as she reads this last sentence?

I was much interested by the accounts of European trips taken by two members of the priesthood, which were published in last week's paper. Both attended the Passion Play and experienced the same emotions, as do all other men who witness that sacred spectacle, but with their agreement on its wonders the similarity of their experiences ends. Father Kirschenheuter tells of the scenic and architectural glories of the Old World, while Father Helenski dwells more on the peoples of the different countries, their habits and their thoughts. Both articles are very interesting.

If my stenographer had not read The Echo she would never have known that she could have her red locks waved permanently for $3.00 at La Nationale Beauty Salon. (No charge for this ad.)

I'll be seen you next week!

Why every telephone worker is a service salesman

The fact that more than 23,000 Southern Bell telephone men and women are enthusiastically promoting the sale of the service, is more than a matter of salesmanship.

It is a manifestation of their interest in the success of their Company and an expression of the spirit of cooperation which has made possible the epochal achievements in the telephone industry. They are inspired by pride in fifty years of progressive, unfailing service and loyalty to the ideals and traditions on which the business is founded.

They unhesitatingly recommend the quality, convenience and economy of the service, in the knowledge that no other comparable service or commodity gives to the consumer so much at such small cost.

Whatever your telephone service needs may be, do not hesitate to consult any telephone man or woman of your acquaintance. They are all anxious to give you the best possible service at the lowest possible cost.

From March 1, 1929 to August 23, 1929, there were 26 persons killed and 137 injured in crossing accidents on the L. & N. In the same period this year four have been killed and 65 injured—an 84 per cent decrease in fatalities and 52 per cent injuries.

Out of consideration for its neighbors along the right-of-way, the road has instructed its engineers to avoid blowing the whistle shrilly, placing emphasis on the fact that an active warning may be given with modulated sound of the whistle.

Elsewhere in this issue is printed a telegram carrying a Gulfport date stating that application has been made for a franchise by Hon. Housh. H. Evans for a standard gauge double track railroad to traverse a distance of 10 miles from the northern boundary of the city to the gulf shore and parallel to the Illinois Central track.

The proposed railroad is to run about 100 miles in a northwesterly direction, and beyond the western boundary of Mississippi.

Announcement of the construction of such a railroad comes as no surprise and it is an almost assured fact that connection is sought with the Gulf of Mexico at Northern in the neighborhood of Bogalusa, that line having but recently been acquired by the Mobile, Jackson and Kansas City railroad, which has need for a port as an out-

Increasing the importance of Gulf as a seaport, add to the population of that city, give employment to laboring class and will be a large contributor in taxes to the State, to city of Gulfport and to the community.

FATHER OF ACCUSED LAUREL MAN HELD

John H. Jackson Arrested as Accessory in $72,000 Embezzlement Case

Chattanooga, Tenn., Sept. 15.—John H. Jackson, father of Edward Jackson, who is alleged to have embezzled $72,000 from the First National Bank of Laurel, Miss., is being held here by Chattanooga detectives on information that he is wanted as an accessory to his son.

Jackson denies any connection with the crime and declares that he has not seen his son since last March. He stated that he is a salesman and came to this city from Atlanta. He stated that the report of a private detective agency that he left Mobile with his son is without foundation.

W. H. Hackett, chief of detectives, is holding Jackson pending instructions from Meridian, Miss., authorities, where it is reported that a warrant for the elder Jackson charging him with being an accessory has been sworn out in the federal court.

MILTON SILLS FAMOUS MOVIE ACTOR, DIES AS HEART FAILS IN GAME

End Comes During Tennis Match With Family—Was Man
Of Education and Stage Experience.

Milton Sills, 48, for many years one of the best known actors in motion pictures, fell dead from a heart attack while playing tennis with his wife and son at their suburban home at Los Angeles Monday night.

Mrs. Sills, formerly Doris Kenyon, film actress, said her husband apparently was in the best of health when the game started. First intimation anything was wrong came when Sills staggered and fell to the court.

Friends of the actor, visiting at the Sills home, carried Sills into the house and summoned the Sawtelle police inhalator squad. He died at 6:45 p. m., 15 minutes after being stricken and without regaining consciousness.

Sills, once a professor of mathematics at Chicago University, was one of the athletes of the screen. Recently his health had not been good. He was confining to his home several weeks last spring with a nervous disorder.

Sills advanced to stardom in the films almost overnight, after a successful stage career. Like many of those with whom he rubbed elbows in the theatrical world, his start was much by accident.

He was born in Chicago January 12, 1882, and was educated at Hyde Park High school and the University of Chicago. He became a college instructor in mathematics. He was the son of William Henry and Josephine Sills.

Evincing a mild interest in amateur theatricals, Sills one day was seen by a prominent producer, who made him an offer. Sills accepted. His first training came in plays produced by Belasco, Frohman, Brady and the Shuberts.

Swiftly he rose to leading roles and the Broadway of 20 years ago accepted him as the matinee idol of "This Woman and This Man," "Just to Get Married," "The Governor's Lady," "Law of the Land," "Diplomacy," and others. He also appeared in a series of Shakespearean plays.

WORK AND PLAY AT S. J. A.

CLASSES BEGIN SEPTEMBER 9.

As enjoyable as we found vacation I think most of us were not adverse to a change and to a certain extent welcomed the thought that S. J. A. would begin school September 9. The registration of the majority of the pupils had taken place on Saturday and Monday September 8th and 9th so that all were in readiness for work on the opening day.

Both the high school and grammar grades showed splendid numbers on roll the opening day with a daily increase since.

The first day of a new school season is always an exciting event in a school girl's life and September 9th, 1930, was no exception at S. J. A. There were old friends to be greeted, new comers to be welcomed and a wealth of vacation experiences to be exchanged. A good spirit prevailed everywhere and each girl intimated confidentially to her friend that she is "to be real good this year" or that she "is to study as she never studied before."

We are in hopes however that these splendid resolutions will hold longer than the first month and that the 1930-1931 session will be the best yet witnessed at S. J. A.

THE JUNIORS' LAMENT.

There's something missing somewhere a part of us is gone. Amid the exciting arrival of friends both old and new and the exchange of the secrets galore of a happy vacation we look on and smile and laugh, but still we yearn for the arrival of one more classmate, who never will come. We wonder about her vacation. Of the blissful joys of which she would tell us if she could return.

Since this cannot be, we should be proud that the part of us that is missing is learning from the Teacher of Life.

So we'll be real students—upright and honorable—for if she should look upon us from her desk above and smile: "They are my classmates," shouldn't she be justified and shouldn't we try to make her proud of us?

We dedicate our year with all our joys, trials and honors to the memory of the truest classmate and friend we could ever have—Helen! A Junior.

A LEAF FROM A BOARDER'S DIARY.

Sept. 10th. Well, diary dear, everything looks about the same, except we all miss the old seniors and pals who didn't return this year. I'd give anything to have a good fuss with Dan's, tease Emmy, hear Lucia with that good ole Spanish or ask Mary Elizabeth to do me a favor. But I suppose we must resign ourselves to the inevitable fact that we'll find some faces every year missing and new ones in their place. Any way I am sure we're going to love the new ones just as we did the old.

The new gym is going to be just wonderful. The work should be completed in about two months and I'm sure we'll win our first basket ball game in our "dream gym," by Christmas.

Another new attraction is the dormitory which was literally transformed into a dainty boudoir by our former History teacher, Miss Stella Kenney. I thought I was in a new place when I entered that dormitory the other day. It is perfectly lovely. Flimsy white curtains draped with a dainty rose border hang in every window. White also trimmed in rose cover the pillows of the beds. White lovely scarfs of the same rose color rest on every stand. Several boudoir beautiful pictures, hang on the walls while even the rose trash basket harmonizes in the color scheme. We are surely most grateful to Miss Stella for this loving thoughtfulness of hers and we wish we could see her soon to tell her how much we appreciate it all.

Miss Kenney much to our sorrow will not be with us this year. She was a veritable grandmother to us during the past session and we know we shall miss her dreadfully during the coming year. She will always have a special place in our hearts and our prayers and good wishes follow her wherever she may be during the coming year.

Miss Regina Blaize is going to replace Miss Kenney as History teacher, and I know we're going to love her and hope she likes us too. No other changes have taken place in the faculty with the exception of Sr. Mary Alice of Crookston, Minnesota who now teaches French in the place of our former teacher, Sr. Mary of Lourdes.

Good-night diary dear, I'll tell you

Heads Of Consolidated Schools of State To Meet At Jackson in October

Superintendent of Education W. F. Bond in his weekly letter to The Echo says:

That on Friday and Saturday, October 10th and 11th, at the Edwards Hotel in Jackson will be held the Fourth Annual Conference of the Superintendents and Principals of Consolidated Schools of the State. Of course the head of every consolidated school will attend this meeting unless detained at home by circumstances over which he has no control. The trustees of the various schools may pay all or part of the expenses of their superintendents, and we are urging that trustees encourage their superintendents or principals to attend.

The consolidated schools are reaching the masses of our folks who need help and sympathetic co-operation in many ways. This conference, therefore, is one of the most necessary and most vital of all of our educational work. By intelligent planning and co-operation the boys and girls in the rural sections of our state within the next few years may have the privilege of attending a school as can be provided anywhere under the most favorable conditions. We still have some problems to work out and difficulties to overcome. At the approaching meeting every consolidated school head in the State will have a chance to take part in the solution of these problems.

Salt Water Drunk For First Time in N. O.

The month of September can go down in the history as that in which citizens of New Orleans first experienced a regular flow of salt sea water for drinking, bathing and other purposes. Because of low water in the Mississippi, the tide goes up from the Gulf of Mexico, 110 miles distant, and deposits in depressions in the river bed salt water that mixes with the regular river water. By the end of the month it will probably be gone, officials of the Sewerage and Water Board declare.

more tomorrow after I've studied real hard.

A DREAM IN THE PROCESS OF REALIZATION.

We had hoped against hope during the whole of the past session that our "gym" would be begun before the close of the current year. But we never dreamed that the opening of school would see its construction under way. What was our surprise therefore, to find on our return that our fondest hope was being realized and that the walls of our "gym" were going up rapidly.

It will be a lovely building and we can well afford to be proud of it. But if we want to go down in the annals of our school as the builders of that gym we will have to get busy and do some work. Ten cents will purchase a brick and we want every girl in the student body to feel that she took part in the construction of St. Joseph's Memorial. So fall right in line and let us see how many bricks you can put to your credit by Christmas.

Several large donations were made to the "gym" during the course of the summer months. To all these generous benefactors of our school we express hearty thanks.

The student body of St. Stanislaus College, Brother Andrew's school and St. Joseph's Academy assisted at Mass in a body Wednesday at 6:30. The Mass was said in honor of the Holy Ghost and had as its special end the blessing of God upon our Catholic schools during this new school year.

Almost every girl and boy present received Holy Communion. Hymns were sung during the Mass by the pupils of S. J. A.

OPPORTUNITY.

They do me wrong who say I come no more,
When once I knock and fail to find you in;
For every day I stand outside your door
And bid you wake, and rise to fight and win.

Wait not for precious chances past away,
Weep not for hidden ages on the wane!
Each night I burn the records of the day—
At sunrise every soul is born again.

Laugh like a boy at splendors that have sped,
To vanished joys be blind and deaf and dumb;
My judgments seal the dead past with its dead,
But never bind a moment yet to come.

Though deep in mire, wring not your hands and weep,
I lend my arm to all who say "I can!"
No shame-faced outcast ever sank so deep
But yet might rise again and be a man!

Dost thou behold they lost youth all aghast?
Dost reel from righteous Retribution's blow?
Then turn from black archives of the past
And find the future's pages white as snow.

Art thou a mourner? Rouse thee from thy spell;
Art thou a sinner? Sins may be forgiven;
Each morning gives thee wings to flee from hell,
Each night a star to guide thy feet to heaven.

—Walter Malone.

Smoke
Chesterfield

Milder, yes—but something more.
Chesterfield offers richness, aroma, satisfying flavor.

BETTER TASTE—that's the answer; and that's what smokers get in Chesterfield in fullest measure—the flavor and aroma of mellow tobacco, evenly blended and cross-blended. Better taste, and milder too!
